

Head Coach

The lacrosse department of the HLC Rot-Weiss Munich is one of the oldest and most successful lacrosse programs in Germany. As soon as possible, the men's teams of the HLC are looking for a new head coach who will help them to shape the personnel change and create the basis for further success.

General conditions

- own lacrosse department within the HLC Rot-Weiss Munich, one of the oldest lacrosse clubs in Germany, German record champion
- functioning club, department and team structures with the support of the general manager, team managers and captains
- season between September and June, winter break December/January and summer break July
- Payment: approx. 500 euros/month
- contract period: initially 1-2 years
- a city with a high quality of life: numerous exciting employers, rich cultural life, close to the Alps, countless parks and beer gardens ...

Profile

- experience, preferably as a coach, with men's lacrosse (from high school level) in a country outside North America, preferably in Europe (knowledge of the great differences in level of technique, athletics and understanding of the game, of motivation and commitment)
- experience with and motivation for development work and coaching of lacrosse beginners
- motivation to work both with A-Team (German top level) and B-Team (mixture of experienced players and beginners)
- tactical understanding
- ability to lead a team with different player/character types
- dependability
- knowledge of German desirable, but not a must

Vision

- in the short and medium term, development work in the A and B teams has higher priority than winning titles
 - training of newcomers
 - technical and tactical improvement of the more experienced players
 - active shaping of the personnel transition
- the goal is to create a broad personnel base in both teams

Specific tasks

- preparation and management of the A- and B-team training (2-3 times a week)
